KURT PANGBORN

PROFESSIONAL SPEAKER

Kurt Pangborn is a collegiate athletics professional at Indiana University, located in Bloomington, Indiana. Serving as Assistant Director for Athletic Tours and Ticket Operations, Mr. Pangborn specializes in customer care, promotion, and revenue generation.

THROUGH BLURRED VISION

A combined fourteen years of experience in collegiate athletics has built a foundation for achievement inside the industry. Success within the boundaries of competition, sales, and advancement have been direct contributions from the workplace. Yet, claiming victory in all aspects of life originated from a limitation.

From a beginning that put sight into question, a vision was developed far greater than any physical sight. Kurt Pangborn, a man that entered into life with the diagnosis Congenital Glaucoma, has since endured forty eye operations. Through talented physicians, dedicated peers, and an ever-faithful God, Kurt continues to overcome. Illuminated in Kurt's character is a desire to reach the thousands who are living with a disability. In addition, the millions of individuals who are overcome with fear from the global pandemic and faced with an unknown tomorrow. Reaching all spectrums and all ages through professional speaking, Kurt desires to enact change through his powerful testimony. Today experience Kurt's life touching message, claim victory for yourself, and discover how higher living starts now.
